2010 NFREC Beef/Forage Field Day
Thursday, March 25, 2010
North Florida Research and Education Center (NFREC) Beef Unit

Schedule of Events (CT):
8:00 AM – Registration
9:00 AM – Start of Program
3:00 PM – Program Conclusion

Topics to be covered:
• Reproductive Management
• Parasite Control and Vaccinations
• Pasture Forage Varieties
• Protein and Energy Supplementation
• Pasture Fertilization
• Pasture Weed Control
• Free-Choice Mineral Supplementation
• Haylage and Silage Options

Speakers:
Andy Andreasen – County Extension Director, Washington County
Ann Blount – Associate Professor, Agronomy, NFREC-Marianna
Shep Eubanks – County Extension Director, Holmes County
Matt Hersom – Assistant Professor, Animal Science, Dept. of Animal Sciences
Max Irisk – Assistant Professor, Veterinary Medicine
Cliff Lamb – Professor, Animal Science, NFREC-Marianna
Cheryl Mackowiak – Assistant Professor, Soil and Water Science, NFREC-Quincy
Travis Maddock – Post Doctoral Associate, NFREC-Marianna
Doug Mayo – County Extension Director, Jackson County
Bob Myer – Professor, Animal Science, NFREC-Marianna
Clyde Smith – Extension Agent, IMP, Jackson County
David Thomas – Farm Supervisor, Beef Unit, NFREC-Marianna

Registration Fee: $10
Lunch and refreshments will be provided
For further information call 850-394-9124 or visit NFREC website (http://nfrec.ifas.ufl.edu).

Location: The Beef Cattle/Forage Field Day will be held at the NFREC Beef Unit and Bull Test Station in Marianna, Florida. The Beef Unit/Bull Test is located 1.4 miles west on Hwy 162 from the traffic light in Greenwood. The unit is 11.4 miles east of Hwy 231 on Hwy 162. From I-10, take Hwy 71 north at exit 142 (previously exit 21), through Marianna to Greenwood (approximately 11 miles). An alternative for those coming from the east on I-10 is to exit at 152 at Grand Ridge (previously exit 22) and take highway 69 to Greenwood.